DeSantis visits Apopka, signs law recognizing gold as legal tender

Rep. Doug Bankson co-sponsored legislation

By Teresa Sargeant Reporter

Gov. Ron DeSantis came to Apopka Tuesday and signed House Bill (HB) 999 into law, legislation recognizing gold and silver — both physical and digital — as legal tender in the state, thus promoting economic independence and financial sovereignty.

Co-sponsored by State Rep. Doug Bankson, R-39, an Apopka resident, DeSantis signed the bill into law at Highland Manor in downtown Apopka.

HB 999 will go into effect on July 1 and aims to counteract the perceived threats of Central Bank digital currency and environmental, social and governance (ESG) policies, which supporters argue undermine financial freedom. DeSantis said the new law also seeks to grant alternatives to traditional fiat currency.

“You have that movement to kneecap your financial independence that is being done through the economy, but then you also just have the specter of Congress and a federal government that has been incapable of controlling the amount of money,” DeSantis said. “It’s borrowing, printing and spending, and this has been happening for many, many years.”

For over 190 years, gold and silver backed the U.S. dollar. That all changed in 1971, when President Richard Nixon took the U.S. dollar off the gold standard. Since then the currency’s buying power has declined over 90%, Bankson said.

In the last 25 years, the national debt jumped from $5.6 trillion in 2000 to nearly $37 trillion in 2025. The spending deficit and the Federal Reserve’s printing of money contributed to the inflation, which DeSantis said is like a tax because both devalue the dollar and have similar drawbacks.

Signing HB 999 into law is one of several ways the state has taken to bring financial independence to Floridians, DeSantis said. He cited

Apopka gathers to remember fallen on Memorial Day

Speakers urge crowd to honor those who sacrificed

By Teresa Sargeant Reporter

Citizens must pass on the legacy of freedom and sacrifice to future generations and continue to keep the memory of fallen soldiers alive every day, keynote speaker Steve Deviese told guests at Apopka’s Memorial Day service.

About 200 people, including several public officials, gathered Monday for a community Memorial Day service at the Veterans Memorial at Edgewood-Greenwood Cemetery.

Deviese, a retired certified public accountant, is a member of Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) Post 10147 of Apopka/Altamonte Springs. He was stationed in Japan for 3 1/2 years, Taiwan for 2 1/2 years and in Vietnam for one year.

Deviese reflected on veterans’ sacrifices, including those who have faced tyranny and terror, and the significance of remembering their contributions.

“Today, Memorial Day, we share a common sorrow,

City Council votes 4-1 to release mineral rights on City Center property

Smith voted against the motion

By Teresa Sargeant Reporter

The Apopka City Council voted 4-1 to release the mineral rights regarding the Apopka City Center. Commissioner Alexander H. Smith cast the only “no” vote.

Several motivations contributed to the City Council’s decision to release the mineral rights, including the potential buyer needing the release to secure a Small Business Administration loan and a state statute allowing the city to release reserved mineral rights. Among other factors, there was no known value to the mineral rights, and the release could spur development in the Apopka City Center, a mixed-use development located at the S.R. 436/Hwy 441 interchange that includes Winn-Dixie, the Hilton Garden Inn, and Highland Manor.

The City Council’s decision would lift a deed restriction that state statute originally required when the property was first sold. City attorney Cliff Shepard explained that the developer, Taurus Apopka City Center, wants to sell one or more parcels.

“It was requested because Taurus is looking to sell one or more of the parcels that it controls,” Shepard told the City Council. “That’s what the request said, and that the buyer asked for as a condition to purchase the property, a release of the claim that we have per the deed that we gave them, the special warranty deed of the mineral rights.”

Shepard further clarified that the mineral rights were reserved due to state statute requirements but noted that the city is not obligated to release these rights.

“As far as I can understand, we do not have an obligation to do so, and which I clearly wanted to make sure I just point out is I have no idea whether these rights have any particular value,” he said. “I don’t know if there’s gold in them there hills, or

First woman to take command of Apopka/Altamonte VFW

Loretta Forlaw plans to focus on growing membership

By Teresa Sargeant Reporter

Ret. Col. Loretta Forlaw will become the first woman to become commander of the VFW Post 10147 on June 12, which coincides with Women Veterans Day.

Forlaw, who was elected in April, will serve a one-year term as commander. She follows Andy Anderson, who held the position for six years.

“I’m very honored and grateful to have the opportunity to work further with VFW plans,” Forlaw said.

Forlaw said her primary focus is to increase VFW Post 10147 membership to help more veterans, especially women veterans.

Remembering life, word counts and writing about Apopka

Job One is remembering about how much 550 words is.

Or should that be “how many 550 words are”? Okay, Job Two would be to remember enough grammar to get by.

The prospect of doing a newspaper column again reminds me of all sorts of jobs that come with the territory — for the writer. Readers only have one: Figuring out whether the written stuff is worth their time and attention.

In many ways, that is an extension of the question, “says who?”

Since there is no reason to expect anybody to remember that I used to do a job that I can barely remember doing, some introduction is in order.

My name is Jake Vest. It appeared thousands of times in the upper right-hand corner of the nationally syndicated cartoon “That’s Jake.” It was also on several newspaper columns across a 32-year career as well as on the cover of a few books.

I worked for the Orlando Sentinel back when it was the Sentinel Star. Stayed over 30 years, much of it writing about and drawing scenes from Apopka.

That is the resume. So, you might ask, “When does he get to the interesting part?”

Well, I once shot pool with Toby Keith, shot clay targets with Louise Mandrell and shot the breeze at a cocktail party with Bob Hope and Gen. William Westmoreland. Nixon was my Commander in Chief when I got drafted. Dolly Parton’s brother was my boss on my first job after the Army. Her dad was our concrete finisher.

We built the bridge at Exit 398 on I-40 just east of Knoxville. It still stands, but I wouldn’t drive too fast over it if I were you. Bridge building made a college student out of me — sort of. I attended some classes and all the football games starting in 1968, but didn’t graduate until 2004, taking a short break to have a career.

The Columbus Ledger-Enquirer in Georgia may have been under the impression that I had a diploma, but that was a misunderstanding. Possibly due to my telling them that I had one.

My first job was at the hometown paper of Jimmy Carter while he was running for president. I have had very little interest in politics ever since. I was at a dinner once with both Joe Biden and John McCain but cannot recall a word either of them said.

For a dozen years I was in an elementary school classroom, supposedly teaching. I wasn’t always sure about that, but the state was. I got three or four High Impact Teacher awards from a couple of governors. I wrote a fourth-grade musical that included the song “Our Teacher’s a Man and He’s Older Than Dirt.” I also wrote a rap song about math.

What can you expect from me? I intend to write just like I would talk to you if we were sitting on the porch, talking about things that interest me, which is just about everything I’ve run across so far. Things I’ve seen, things I continue to see, stuff that matters to real people — everything from education to the price of eggs, good biscuits and bad TV.

I can’t be sure of all of it because I haven’t seen everything yet and I am not about to quit looking.

Let’s just say we will treat you so many ways you are bound to like some of them.

Wyld Oaks development moves forward

Wyld Oaks, the award-winning Master Plan Development at the intersection of State Road 429 and Kelly Park Road and Golden Gem Road, has been busy recently. The 250+ acre project broke ground in January 2024 and is nearly finished with horizontal infrastructure, including mass grading of the site, master stormwater system, and the nearly two-mile extension of Sadler and Effie roads onsite with all utilities.

Parcels are pad-ready for vertical development this summer. Their plan includes over 3,000 apartment homes, 54 single family homes, up to hundreds of thousands of square feet of commercial and medical office space, a 125-room hotel and over 1.5 million square feet of industrial space.

The wide-ranging product mix will truly make Wyld Oaks a place where you can live, work, and play without ever getting in your car. Wyld Oaks and two other local developers have entered into the “Pioneering Agreement” with the city. They have already funded $15 million of cash into a city escrow account and guaranteed any funding overruns required to expand Kelly Park Road from two lanes to four with a planted median and new signals.

Apopka Mayor

Construction will begin by January 2026 and be completed soon thereafter.

The Wyld Oaks project is expected to generate substantial impact fees, which the city can use to support infrastructure improvements in the northwest area of Apopka. If market demand remains steady and the project builds out in accordance with the masterplan, that means $19 million of transportation impact fees, $1.5 million each for police and fire/EMS impact fees, $3 million in recreation impact fees and $23 million for water and sewer impact fees.

When build-out is complete, it is estimated Wyld Oaks will generate between $2.2 million and $3.9 million dollars in property tax revenue each year for the city and between $2 million and $3.7 million in property taxes for Orange County.

Wyld Oaks will also feature the Yonder, a 10-acre public park with a native preserve featuring 150-year-old centennial oak trees, where members of the public can take a break from the more energized town center by walking or biking the trails. Yonder will be pet friendly and will include a best-in-class dog park.

Wyld Oaks has been featured in the Orlando Business Journal, Orlando Sentinel and Growthspotter. For more information about the exciting Wyld Oaks Development visit wyldoaks.com.

Dominium development rising to meet workforce housing needs

Last Thursday, I attended the groundbreaking of the Dominium workforce housing project along Plymouth Sorrento Road. It was inspiring.

The Dominium Corporation from Minnesota is investing about $150 million into the Apopka area. Orange County Government abated all impact fees, provided $7 million from the Housing for All Trust Fund, and $4 million from the remaining pandemic federal stimulus dollars, known as ARPA funds.

The Mira and Stillwaters are high quality housing projects. In fact, my math puts each unit costing around $300,000 to construct. The Stillwaters project features an impressive lake-front setting with a wide array of amenities, including a two-story lobby and clubroom, fitness center, craft room, business center, package room, and outdoor spaces which include a grilling area and native tree reserve. Stillwater consists of 78 one-bedroom units, 86 two-bedroom, and 16 three-bedroom apartment homes.

The Mira has 300 units total for families. The amenity package is also extensive, like Still-waters. It features a clubhouse with a fitness center, yoga studio, package room, resort style pool, seating areas, grilling stations, bike storage, and electric vehicle charging stations. The Mira has 96 two-bedroom, 132 three-bedroom, and 72 four-bedroom apartment homes.

County Commissioner District 2

Christine Moore

The units are rent restricted by income; however, they are not the lowest affordable housing projects such as Section 8. These guidelines are federal in nature and a bit complex even to me. The median family income in our area (MSA) is $90,400. The 50 percent of median family income residents has been determined to be $33,800 for one resident up to $48,250 for a family of four. The company also leases to residents earning up to 80% of the median family income, which ranges from $54,054 for one resident to $77,200 for a family of four.

As you can see from the income requirement, The Mira and Stillwaters will likely house working families. Employees from nearby businesses such as the local logistics companies Amazon and Goya would likely qualify. The company’s goal is to additionally serve teachers, public safety employees, health care workers, and others in similar income ranges.

It also seems to me that seniors applying to live in Stillwaters may need a roommate, unless their retirement income fits in these ranges.

Rents, due to tax abatement, low interest loans, and county investment, will be $400 — $500 less than typical market rate apartments. Again, these rents are not as low as Section 8 housing programs.

With so many in our community struggling to afford rent, I’m glad the Minnesota-based Dominium Corporation chose to invest $150 million in the Apopka, unincorporated community.

most from it.”

He encouraged the crowd to remember how they can pass on veterans’ legacy of sacrifice and remembrance.

First, Deviese said, people should teach others the sacrifices made on their behalf to enjoy the liberties as given in the U.S. Constitution and help future generations understand that defending one’s nation and fighting for others’ freedom “is the most noble of endeavors.”

Second, everyone must find ways to tell veterans’ anecdotes in a “soundbite culture,” Deviese said, referencing social media’s ubiquitous brief videos that last a few seconds or minutes, also called “stories” on many platforms.

“Their history deserves telling and retelling,” he said. “Find a way in your life, at work or at home, at church or youth group, meeting wherever to keep their memories alive. Honor their sacrifices, tell their stories and cherish their memory.”

Finally, the public should continue to gather on Memorial Day every year to pay tribute to each fallen hero.

“A key component of our nation’s greatness relies in our ability to honor, appreciate and cherish through our actions and our memories all those who died to ensure our freedom,” Deviese said. “We often hear that freedom has a price, and each generation pays its due. Today is our day to say thank you to those who, for generations, who have... paid so dearly with their lives and to their families and friends, those whose lives are forever changed and to whom we owe an enormous debt.”

VFW Post 10147 Andy Anderson opened the ceremony by acknowledging the over 1 million men and women who sacrificed their lives for the nation. He mentioned the two pilots who died on October 15, 2024, when their EA-18 Growler jet crashed during a training exercise near Washington state’s Mount Rainier, the end of the Vietnam War over 50 years ago, and the 2021 U.S. troop withdrawal from Afghanistan.

“But is there any group more deserving of the title than the more than 1 million men and women who have sacrificed lives in defense of this nation?” Anderson said. “I think not, but even within United States, the military is still an inherently dangerous profession comprised of professionals willing to sacrifice for us.”

Later in the ceremony, Anderson called for a moment of silence to honor two VFW Post 10147 members who died in the past year, Lloyd T. Brown and Jack Turman. Senior vice commander Rolland Dourer read the names of the fallen members, followed by a moment of silence.

Organized by the city of Apopka and the VFW Post 10147, the Memorial Day service included a reading of “In Flanders Field” written by John McCrae during World War I and its response poem “We Shall Keep the Faith” by Moina Michael, taps, a gun salute by Joe Kara, Tom Pratt, Larry Comstock, Anthony Perez and Tim Trombitas, and Roger Bankson performing special music.

Mineral Rights

City Commissioner Alexander Smith

oil in the soil, or anything, but the document does what it seeks to do, which is release those rights. Everything else is discretionary.”

In June 2018, the city sold subject property to Taurus Apopka Development, according to the city staff report in the May 21 Council agenda packet. By doing this, the city reserved a right to the minerals and petroleum under the land.

“Pursuant to the Special Warranty Deed (attached), the City of Apopka reserved a right to the minerals and petroleum under the land pursuant to F.S. 270.11(1). F.S. 270.11(1) reserves for local governments a portion of the rights to all the phosphate, minerals, and metals that are or may be in, on, or under the said land with the privilege to mine and develop the same,” according to the staff report.

Vice Mayor Diane Velazquez asked Mayor Bryan Nelson if he renegotiated that contract when he first became mayor in 2018. Nelson said the portion of the contract Velazquez was referring to was under then-Mayor Joe Kilsheimer and then-Commissioner Kyle Becker.

However, when Commissioner Nick Nesta asked Nelson if he had the opportunity to renegotiate it, Nelson said, “I guess I did.”

“So, you can blame others, but you got the opportunity to fix it,” Nesta said.

Commissioner Nadia Anderson confirmed with Shepard that the deed restriction is part of the deed itself and cannot be renegotiated.

Anderson said that in speaking with Taurus, she understood that the buyer was unable to secure a loan through the SBA.

There’s a state statute that required the city of Apopka to retain the mineral rights when selling the property, and that was what the deed does, according to Shepard.

“They’ve now requested that we release those rights, and there’s nothing that I can find which would keep us legally from doing so,” Shepard said. “That said, there’s also nothing that would compel us to.”

Gas district reaches 30,000 customers

Number doubled in last 15 years

By Teresa Sargeant Reporter

The Lake Apopka Natural Gas District (LANGD) is celebrating a milestone of reaching 30,000 customers, marking a 15-year growth from 15,000 to 30,000 in its 65th anniversary of existence.

Oakland resident Ryan Rodriguez and his family received a recognition plaque and a year's worth of natural gas service up to $1,000.

"The milestones are great, a great thing for us to celebrate," said Brent Haywood, general manager/CEO of LANGD. "There are a lot of utilities out there that are that are smaller than the district. We've been fortunate to have a service territory that has been very pro natural gas. We've had 30,000 customers who've made the choice for natural gas to be their chosen energy, for cooking, for heating, for warm water."

Haywood attributed the district's growth to having the right product, people and timing. Natural gas has been proven to be a cost-effective and reliable energy source across the nation but especially in Florida, where 82% of electricity is generated using natural gas, he said.

The large influx of people moving from the north to Florida have been natural gas customers, in turn prompting LANGD to prepare to expand its natural gas supply to meet the growing demand in Central Florida, Haywood said.

The cities of Winter Garden, Apopka and Clermont passed their ordinances on LANGD's energy choice initiative, which gives customers in those municipalities the option to decide which energy source is the best for their budget and lifestyle.

This will enable LANGD to grow its customer base at a faster rate. LANGD has been gaining around 1,000 customers a year, which could double to 2,000 a year.

LANGD has applied for and received federal grants for replacement and reinforcement of some existing systems. It is trying to land additional state grants to fund expansion of the gas utilities.

Ultimately, it begins with the district building a strategic plan to provide gas to the area, Haywood said.

"Without a good plan, you can't assure that you're going to have the gas available at the right time and at the right cost for people when the demand is there," Haywood said. "We've been working for the past year developing a fairly robust strategic plan that includes additional pipelines in the area, in our service territory, working on bringing additional supply to the district. We are in a supply and demand competitive environment. Again, we're competing against electric utilities for the natural gas supply."

At the LANGD Board of Commissioners meeting Tuesday, the board members selected a new asset manager and gas supply contract.

The district has expanded its qualified contractor base from one to six to ensure competitive bidding and cost-effective installation. The district is also diversifying its contractors to ensure cost-effective installation.

"So as the growth comes, we're able to make sure that we're getting the best rates for installation for the natural gas when it comes around as well," Haywood said. "Competing for construction services is a big thing. Competing for people, competing for resources, we're always in a constant competition."

Groundbreaking

“The Mira, which is where we are right now, will be the family-oriented apartment community, which will provide homes with attainable rent for 300 families,” said Devon Quist, Dominion’s vice president and project partner. “The Stillwaters, behind us near the lake, will provide affordable homes for 180 senior households. When the two developments are complete, they’ll have fitness centers, playgrounds, dive bars, a pool, outdoor grilling and recreation areas, as well as walking trails.”

The Mira and The Stillwaters have benefited from Orange County Mayor Jerry Demings’ “Housing for All” Task Force.

“The Housing for All Task Force made some recommendations about what we could do to move the needle to increase the production of affordable workforce housing in our community that would be available to our low-income families,” Demings said at the groundbreakthe area and one of only a few in the nation — will grant at least $160 million to affordable housing efforts over 10 years.

“Having an affordable place to live and raise a family can transform lives,” Demings said. “Orange County is proud to partner with Dominion and approve over $789,000 in impact fee waivers for The Stillwaters 180-unit affordable housing development for seniors.”

Demings said the county also approved $15 million to support The Mira, a 300-unit affordable housing development for families.

“These two communities are a fantastic example of all the different parties — the city, the county, the state agency — working together to ensure appropriate housing opportunities and smart growth development,” Quist said. “These future communities would not be a reality without consistent leadership from Orange County, and we’re delighted that these communities will come to be over the next couple of years.”

other efforts including Florida becoming the first state to ban ESG from pension funds and removing $2 billion from BlackRock, a major ESG supporter.

DeSantis contrasted the federal government's actions with Florida's fiscal responsibility, noting a 41% reduction in state debt since his governorship.

HB 999 does four things: enact the state's constitutional right to declare gold and silver as legal tender, establish the framework for depositories within the state of Florida with all the checks and balances independent auditing and fully insured holdings, enable gold and silver as a standard weight and purity to be accessed by electronic transaction or a debit card, and ensure the right between willing parties to transact legally with gold and silver.

"If you bought a home in 1979, the average cost was $75,000," Bankson said. "If you bought that same home, that same product, now it would be $531,000. However, if you had bought that in gold in 1979 it would have been 268 ounces. Today, if you bought that home, 268 ounces. Why? Because [gold] is a tangible thing that has true value."

Economist and author Kevin Freeman, a proponent of HB 999, recalled the moment over 50 years ago when his father informed him Nixon's removal of the dollar off the gold standard would cause inflation. Freeman said the new law will usher in a "new era of economic justice and real prosperity" in Florida.

"This has been a dream of mine since I was 10 years old," Freeman said. "This is why I became an economist."

Throughout the years, Freeman has spoken, debated, and written about making precious metals transactional — which included sharing this idea with DeSantis that led to writing the book "Pirate Money" — but the economist said he can't take credit for the idea.

"It was the founders, based on their reading the Bible," Freeman said. "You see, God hates dishonest weights and measurements. He wants money to be fair for all people, and with the way the federal government wraps up debt and creates money from nothing, it has been far from fair."

VFW Command

Forlaw is collaborating with other organizations to identify local veterans and develop better marketing strategies, especially for Altamonte Springs.

"We're connected, but we need to do more to ask for more support from the community," Forlaw said. "We really haven't done a good job of marketing how the community can help us."

Forlaw has been a member of Post 10147 for about eight years, active for five, and was a volunteer as a community relations director for the last two. She served in the U.S. Army Nurse Corps in Vietnam from 1968 to 1969. After retiring from the military, she was a nursing faculty member for 25 years at different locations. She last taught at the University of Central Florida nursing school.

Fundraising is crucial for the VFW, according to Forlaw, saying that the VFW plans to organize one like what she calls "stand downs" to help women veterans. At a stand down, women veterans are included for food and haircuts as well as assistance with finding jobs and other life needs.

"We just haven't focused enough on it in the past, and it's hard when you have a small membership," Forlaw said. "Our problem is that our active membership is small, and we really need to grow attendance by our members."

Forlaw has been visiting the VA Orlando Healthcare since 2000 to increase awareness among female veterans that they have VA benefits, the same ones as their male counterparts.

"If you're wearing a shirt that says, 'I'm a combat veteran,' a man will come up to you and ask you why you're wearing your husband's shirt," Forlaw said. "That has happened to VFW members by other VFW members. We don't wear hats like the guys. So you know right away they're veterans, but women haven't been really — we don't have a symbol of women being veterans."

Forlaw pointed out that some women veterans veterans think they don't need the VA because they can get insurance through their husbands.

"They're okay but then something happens, and the family gets disrupted," Forlaw said. "That's how many veterans end up homeless, but don't know that they're entitled to VA benefits. It's more prevalent among women, because there was a time when women weren't treated the same as the male veterans at the VA, but in the last three to four years, the laws have really been changed to make the women more on par."

As Post 10147 commander, Forlaw will host a seminar for women veterans from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m. on June 12 at Holden Heights Community Center (1201 20th St., Orlando). Registration and networking/resources will take place 10-11:30 a. m., followed by lunch and program from 11:30 a. m. to 1 p. m. The cost is free and donations are welcomed.

Apopka post office collects almost 9K pounds in food donations

Loaves & Fishes will allocate food to community

Staff Reports

The Apopka Post Office picked up a total of 8,785 pounds of food for Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive on May 10, according to Loaves & Fishes.

Once food donations were brought to the Apopka Post Office on Park Avenue, the donations were unloaded from trucks and weighed before delivering to Loaves & Fishes, the Christian ministry food pantry on East Eighth Street in Apopka. Loaves & Fishes volunteers were on hand to help.

Organized by the National Association of Letter Carriers, (NALC) organizes the yearly Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive, which falls on the second Saturday of May nationwide.

For Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive, people leave their donations of non-perishable food items next to their mailbox for the letter carrier to pick up while delivering mail. Food collected in Apopka are taken to Loaves & Fishes for allocation to the community.

Apopka resident LaVerne Schwitzgoebel celebrates 100th birthday

By Sarah Merly
Correspondent

Apopka resident LaVerne Sylvia Schwitzgoebel celebrated her 100th birthday with friends on Sunday, May 25, at Gator's Dockside.

LaVerne says she feels "both happy and sad" to be 100.

"I've lost so many ... my husband, family, friends," she said. "Yet I have so many new friends."

LaVerne was born on May 22, 1925, in Sheboygan, Wisconsin, to Charles and Elizabeth Ostermann, according to a statement from friend Dawn Haynes. After she graduated from Sheboygan High School, LaVerne married Alvin "Al" Joseph Schwitzgoebel on October 23, 1948.

The Schwitzgoebels arrived in Apopka 75 years ago in their one-bedroom trailer. They cultivated a fruitful life as they watched the city grow. While Al worked as a handyman, LaVerne served as a financial secretary for John's Nursery, retiring after 27 years.

LaVerne is also an active charter member of St. Paul

Lutheran Church, where she sang in the choir and served as social secretary and financial assistant. She still participates in church activities in her spare time, in addition to reading and playing the piano.

"I've always been surrounded with good people like my husband," LaVerne said. "I appreciate everything."

Be Ready, Not Reactive: Prepare for Hurricane Season Now

Florida earned its nickname as the Sunshine State with beautiful, sun-soaked days filling out most of the year, but as hurricane season approaches, it also becomes one of the most storm-vulnerable states in the country. June 1 marks the official start of hurricane season, meaning that now – not later – is the perfect time to make sure you and your family are prepared.

At Lake Apopka Natural Gas District (LANGD), we're proud to support our Central Florida neighbors by offering the most reliable energy solution. We know firsthand that one of the smartest ways to prepare for hurricane season is by choosing safe, reliable natural gas.

Unlike electricity, which is vulnerable to downed power lines and service disruptions, natural gas is delivered through underground pipelines, meaning you can depend on it even during the harshest storms. That's part of the reason why critical service providers like hospitals, fire stations, and emergency management centers depend on natural gas to stay up and running during critical times.

Natural gas customers can also rely on essential appliances like water heaters and oven ranges to remain operational during power outages. When the lights go out, you'll still be able to cook, clean, and take hot showers. For families, that type of reliability can bring much-needed peace of mind during uncertain times.

It's not just about dependability either. Natural gas is also the smarter economic choice. Thanks to high-efficiency appliances and its lower cost, natural gas homes enjoy annual utility bills that are approximately 49% lower than those of comparable all-electric homes, according to the American Gas Association.

That said, making the switch requires some planning to fulfill your natural gas service installation. That's why we encourage homeowners to act now, before a storm is on the horizon.

In addition to exploring reliable energy options, the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) recommends creating a full preparedness plan that includes keeping an emergency preparedness kit stocked and at the ready, knowing your evacuation routes ahead of time, creating a communication plan with family members and other important steps that you should take to help you and your family stay safe during hurricane season. Learn more at <https://www.fema.gov/>.

Don't wait until a storm is in the forecast. Now is the time to prepare and equip your home with natural gas to make sure you're storm ready before hurricane season arrives.

Copycat Red Lobster Cheddar Cheese Biscuits to bake on your own

We have Mark Sohn's Fried Green Tomatoes, with step-by-step instructions for a successful fry! He even gives a healthy choice alternative. He says, "In the movie Fried Green Tomatoes, the characters eat fried tomatoes for breakfast, a birthday celebration, an afternoon snack, and fresh out of the skillet at the Whistle Stop Café. I suggest serving fried green tomatoes for breakfast with bacon, eggs, and corn bread, or for dinner as a side-dish vegetable."

dining restaurants; and countless hours in the test kitchen itself. Making Copycat Red Lobster Cheddar Biscuits from scratch is actually quite easy. You'll find the full recipe below.

MARK SOHN'S FRIED GREEN TOMATOES

Hearty Country Cooking

Fried green tomatoes are prepared in three steps: slice the tomatoes, coat them with cornmeal, and fry. But if you have never seen fried green tomatoes, you'll have many questions: What kind of shortening do you use? Do the tomatoes need to be peeled? Do you coat the tomatoes with a batter, flour, or cornmeal? Do you flavor the batter with sugar, black pepper, cayenne, or hot sauce? Be sure to select firm tomatoes that do not show any signs of ripening.

Steps: In a 10-inch cast-iron skillet over medium heat, melt the lard until it starts to smoke, or until it reaches 325 to 350 degrees Fahrenheit. If you are smoking up the kitchen, the lard is too hot. Reduce the heat.

1) Cut the tomatoes into 3/8-inch slices. If you want batter to stick to the edge of the slices, peel the tomatoes. (I skip that step.)

2) In a mixing bowl, combine self-rising cornmeal mix, salt, and pepper, and coat the tomato slices with the mixture. Fry about 2 minutes on each side, or until golden brown. The tomatoes will be cooked through, but not overly crusty on the outside.

3) Drain on a wire rack and serve. If you let the fried tomatoes sit, what was crisp will be soggy!

4) Healthy Choice Alternative: In this recipe, the light coating of cornmeal does not absorb a lot of lard. For a light oven-fried tomato, after dipping the tomatoes in the cornmeal, place them on a cooling rack over a cookie sheet, and bake 20 minutes at 400 degrees Fahrenheit. Broil to brown.

MACARONI SALAD

The New Low-Country Cooking
by Marvin Woods

1-1/2 pounds elbow macaroni, cooked according to package directions, drained, and cooled
1/2 cup sweet pickle relish
1/2 cup finely chopped celery
1/4 cup finely chopped onion
1/4 cup finely chopped red bell pepper
1/4 cup finely chopped green bell pepper
1/4 cup mayonnaise
2 tablespoons Dijon-style mustard
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 teaspoon fresh lemon juice
1 teaspoon Marv Spice (Savory)
1/2 teaspoon celery salt
Salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste

Place the macaroni in a large bowl. Add the remaining ingredients and stir gently to combine. Add the remaining ingredients and stir gently to combine. Taste and check the seasoning, adding salt and pepper if needed. Because of the mayonnaise, I serve this salad chilled. It can be stored in an airtight container in the refrigerator for 7 to 10 days.

MARV SPICE (SAVORY)

1 tablespoon ground nutmeg
1 tablespoon chili powder
1 tablespoon cayenne pepper
1 tablespoon celery salt
1/4 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper

In a small bowl, mix all of the ingredients together until combined. Store in an airtight container for up to 6 months.

Ingredients:

2 cups all-purpose flour
1 cup shredded Cheddar cheese
1 tablespoon baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
2/3 cup milk
1/3 cup butter, softened and cut into pieces
1 large egg
Butter topping:
2 tablespoons butter, melted
2 teaspoons dried parsley (Optional)
1 teaspoon garlic powder (Optional)

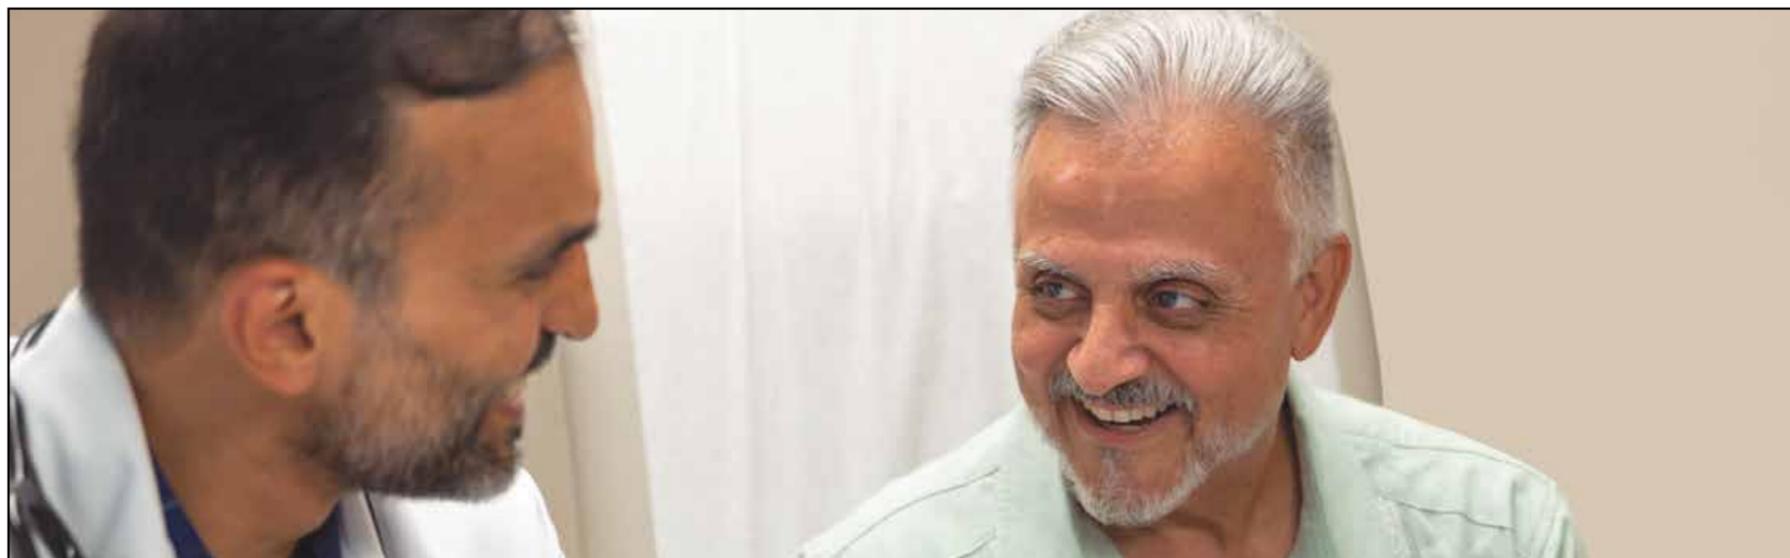

Making the Dough:

In one bowl, combine the dry ingredients. In another bowl, combine the wet ingredients. Then add the dry ingredients to the wet ingredients and lightly mix. The mixture is meant to be chunky, so be careful not to overmix. Drop the dough onto a baking sheet and bake for 10 minutes.

Making the Butter Topping:

Melt the butter and stir in garlic powder and parsley (if you're using it). Then brush the butter topping onto each biscuit. Bake for another 5 minutes, until the biscuits are golden brown. Original recipe yields 12 servings.

All-purpose flour will work best for these biscuits. A cup of shredded Cheddar is the key to making the biscuits extra flavorful and cheesy. Milk will moisten the dough. The egg will bind your ingredients together. Butter goes into the dough and also is the main ingredient in the topping. Baking powder will help the dough rise without yeast. This recipe calls for salt and garlic powder in the dough plus optional garlic powder and parsley in the butter topping.

Blue Darters fall 31-14 in spring game against Jones

Elijah Frazier scores both Apopka touchdowns

By Marshall Tempest
Reporter

The 2025 Apopka Blue Darter football team still needs to put in a lot of work before the start of the fall season after taking a 31-14 loss to the Jones Tigers last week in the annual spring game.

Head coach Jeff Rolson emphasized that injuries and missing players contributed to the performance, but more importantly, his team is very young and needs to develop skills.

“Some stuff looks really good, and some stuff looks poor,” Rolson said after the loss. “We don’t need to give up 31 points. We need to score 21 or 28 points. But we can’t give up 31.”

Rolson said the team has a long way to go, but it’s spring, and the kids played hard.

“We’ve got some stuff on film now, and that was the first game for a lot of guys, so it’s going to be a learning process,” he said.

They proved the Blue Darters can compete at a high level. Even with Jones more than doubling Apopka’s point total, the Blue Darters put up a good fight against the 2024 state runners-up.

The Jones offense piled up 333 total yards, 278 of which were passing. In the loss, Apopka amassed 240 total yards, 154 of which were rushing yards.

The Blue Darters actually had a better third-down conversion rate than Jones, 50% to 16.6%, but Jones had fewer third downs (six) than Apopka (10) to convert.

The Blue Darters have been known forever for their smashmouth approach to offense. Last year, that disappeared from the offensive attack, but with Rolson heading the offense, the famous Apopka single wing appeared and proved to be as valuable

Mustangs have a lot of work to do before fall ball

By Marshall Tempest
Reporter

The Wekiva Mustangs fell 16-7 to the Lyman Greyhounds in their annual spring football game last week, providing the first look at how the teams are preparing for the fall season.

Wekiva took the lead early and held onto it for most of the game in this low-scoring matchup. Despite the Mustangs’ early lead and strong defense, the Greyhounds were able to capitalize on Wekiva’s many mistakes and penalties.

Wekiva head coach Doug Gabriel said his program is in the middle of rebuilding.

“We are playing with a JV team right now,” Gabriel said. “All of our players have graduated, so we’re very young. I was happy with the performance, but we have a lot to learn because they still don’t know the plays.”

In the first quarter both teams struggled to find their footing on offense after penalties stalled drives. False starts, holding penalties, dropped passes and an early interception halted Wekiva’s offense in the first quarter, while the defense held Lyman with ease.

In the second quarter, Wekiva got its first and only points of the night on a passing touchdown. With a 45-yard drive, Wekiva got into the endzone with a bubble screen, taking a 7-0 lead with 10:00 left in the second quarter after a successful extra point.

Near the end of the second quarter, the Greyhound offense began to build some momentum and pushed into Wekiva’s red zone. But the Mustang defense stonewalled the Lyman offense on the goal line, forcing a fourth down. The Greyhounds decided to go for a field goal and were successful, cutting their deficit to 7-3 with 3:04 left in the first half.

At the start of the third quarter, Wekiva lost a player to unsportsmanlike conduct. He was not ejected, but he could not return to the field.

Gabriel said the strongest part of the team is the defensive line and the player they lost was a big part of it. The Mustangs had been getting great pressure in the pocket and were shutting down the run effectively, but without one of their best players, their defensive consistency began to slip.

By the end of the quarter, Lyman was once again knocking on Wekiva’s door in the red zone. The Wekiva defense managed to force a fourth down, but the Greyhounds went for it and completed a touchdown pass to take a 10-7 lead with 10:48 remaining in the fourth quarter.

With six minutes left in the game, the Greyhounds had the ball at their 45-yard line and began marching down the field. A 27-yard run brought Lyman into Wekiva’s red zone with just 3:13 left in the game. A Greyhound touchdown run finished the drive and sealed the outcome, 16-7.

Apopka softball honors players at end-of-year banquet

Eight players make All Metro West’s first or second team

By Marshall Tempest
Reporter

The Apopka softball team held its end-of-year banquet Tuesday, when it celebrated its amazing season and the players who made it happen.

The team was joined by family members and friends, while head coach Mike MacWithey invited some special guests of his own. Apopka Mayor Bryan Nelson was in attendance, as was a former player who is now playing Division 1 softball for Florida Atlantic University.

The banquet recognized the JV and varsity softball team members for their efforts this season. Every member of both teams was awarded plaques featuring a team photo, their number, and their name.

MacWithey awarded six varsity players special honors for Most Outstanding Player, Defensive Player of the Year, Offensive Player of the Year, Pitcher of the Year, the Golden ROSE Award, and All Academics.

As expected, the Most Outstanding Player award went to Taylor Smith, who led her team in nearly every offensive category. Smith collected 41 runs, 44 RBIs, seven doubles, two triples, and 13 home runs with a season batting average of .487.

The Defensive Player of the Year award went to Ava Gonzalez, who finished the season with a .975 fielding percentage, 150 putouts on 163 chances, and just four errors.

Riley Ford earned Offensive Player of the Year honors. MacWithey praised Ford for being the team’s clutch hitter. Batting after Smith is not easy, but Ford did it well, logging 28 runs, 18 RBIs, five doubles, a triple, and two home runs with a season batting average of .486.

Pitcher of the Year went to Ava Millsbaugh, who finished the season with a 3.07 ERA with 82 innings pitched. Millsbaugh was Apopka’s starting and ace pitcher the team relied on all season to retire strong batters.

The Golden ROSE award was given out for the first time this year. It goes to the player who best emulates the team’s mission.

The Apopka softball team’s mission is to treat every incoming player like a budding rose and prepare them to blossom on and off the field. MacWithey said that Sydney Bartkin embodied the program’s rose mission. He said that she was willing to do whatever it took to become an essential piece for her team. Whether that meant being on the mound or in the outfield, Bartkin was always playing for the team.

The final award was for All Academics. Reese Kernz received the award because she had the highest GPA on the team, over 5.0. Kernz is also one of

Bass fishin’ on Lake Kissimmee is doin’ pretty good lately

GOIN’ FISHIN’

Jim Keck
Correspondent

Hello Folks,
I want to thank all you folks for your thoughts and prayers durin’ my absence. I ended up havin’ two back surgeries about one week apart. I’m grateful for your prayers of support durin’ this time.

While I was gone, the fishin’ was pretty good. I’m gettin’ plenty of reports from Lake Kissimmee about all the bluegills and shellcrackers bein’ caught around the pads. Most of the panfish are bein’ caught on grass-shrimp and red worms.

The bass fishin’ has been pretty good on Lake Kissimmee, too. Most of the bass are bein’ caught on chatter-baits, plastic worms, and Senko type baits.

Congrats to John Stahl and Casey Gonzalez for their win on the Kissimmee Chain. The X-treme Bass Series held their monthly tournament last weekend, and John and Casey brought 5 bass to the scales that weighed in at 27.22 pounds. Big Bass of the tournament was caught by the team of Chris Maxwell and Michael Porter. Their Big Bass hit the scales at 7.61 pounds. There were 26 boats that fished that day, and it sounds like everyone had a great time and caught some nice stringers of bass as well.

The X-treme Bass Series held a tournament on John’s Lake last weekend and it took 19.46 pounds to win. Congrats to the team of Steven Sanders and Scott McDonald for their winnin’ stringer. The Big Bass of the tournament was caught by the team of David Smith and Dale Wolfskill. Their Big Bass hit the scales at 8.67 pounds. There were 12 boats in the field and all 12 teams caught a limit of 5 bass per boat.

The Butler Chain is still doin’ good for bass fishin’. Folks are catchin’ bass just about every time they go fishin’. You won’t catch many biguns, but you will have a blast catchin’ keeper-size bass. Most of the bass are bein’ caught on plastic worms, swim-jigs, and slow sinkin’ Senko type baits.

My buddy Rich Niles went fishin’ over the weekend. He decided to go fish Lake Monroe. He reports that the fishin’ was pretty good and he caught a couple of bass over 3 pounds. Rich also reported that the water is very low, and there were a few areas he tried to fish but his boat was touchin’ the bottom of the lake. So, don’t be runnin’ your boat too close to the shoreline; you just might get stuck and not get your boat off the bottom!

Well, it’s great to be back in the saddle. I hope you have a great week, and, hopefully you’ll get a chance to do some fishin’ over the weekend.

See ya next week.
Tip of the week: God Bless our country!

Wekiva's quarterback gets off a pass just in time just in time as a Lyman defensive end wraps around his leg after for a tackle.

Gabriel said he and the team took a lot away from the loss. He specifically cited the attitude of his players and said he knows now that they can be better than they have been in the past.

"I love the fact that we're not leaving with headaches," Gabriel said. "Kids want to be coached, so it isn't like they are trying not to be coached. And I love that part. Compared to last year, we had a lot of talent, but kids were playing more for themselves. We shot ourselves in the foot multiple times tonight with mistakes, but we can build on this. I'm not worried."

Gabriel also emphasized that the team was missing a lot of starters due to injuries, so the true team has not even been seen at game speed yet.

Gabriel said the running back and even the quarterback who appeared in the spring game might not be starting in the fall. He liked their play on the field, but they are JV kids that need game experience.

Gabriel says the focus now is taking everything they saw and did in the spring game learning from it and applying it at practice.

"We just got to get the kids ready," Gabriel said. "The young kids that were making mistakes were also making mistakes at practice. And because you only get so many days of practice, you're trying to get the kids, all of them, ready, but you're trying to get the main kids ready too."

as everyone remembers.

The Jones offense was explosive, consistent, and efficient, racking up almost 100 more yards than Apopka in 20 fewer plays. The Tigers averaged 8.32 yards per play compared to Apopka's 3.93.

But the revamped Apopka offense looked great, Rolson said, and the players are still just getting familiar with it.

"The stuff we wanted to do was there," Rolson said. "We had numbers, we would do certain things, and it was there, but they just had really good athletes. But this is spring, and I think we showed some things we can do and some things we have to work on."

The run game was the centerpiece of the Apopka offense, and Rolson was true to his word with a 70-30 run-pass split. The single wing was responsible for both Apopka touchdowns, with Elijah Frazier scoring each time. Frazier and fellow back Jakyvion Kemp led the Blue Darters in the run game, with quarterback Tyson Davison also picking up some small gains.

The Apopka passing game looked decent. Davison completed a few great passes in challenging scenarios that gave Apopka first downs. Davison finished with 86 passing yards, a 58.8 completion percentage, and one interception.

Like last season, Apopka struggled to score points when the offense pushed the ball into the opponent's side of the field. Jones had nine drives, five of which resulted in points. Apopka also had nine drives but only scored on two of those drives.

Defensively, Apopka did great in the run defense but was shredded in the passing game. The Blue Darter run defense gave up just 55 rushing yards for an average of 2.9 yards per rush.

Apopka's secondary was responsible for every Jones touchdown, as the Tigers collected four passing touchdowns: a 23-yarder in the first quarter, a 12-yarder and an 80-yarder in the second, and an 11-yarder in the third.

Rolson said that, overall, he was very happy with the team's performance, and he has great hope for the fall season. With just two months to go until the start of August, the Apopka football team has a few weeks to improve significantly in a few areas and potentially grow as a team as the season progresses.

The 2025 Preseason Kick-off Classic for Apopka will once again be against Tampa Bay Tech, with the Blue Darters hosting this year. Kickoff for the game is set to be at 7 p.m. on Friday, Aug. 15.
