WHS girls Basketball falls to St. Thomas in FHSAA State Semifinal

"It was a great experience for our young team - being able to put Wekiva High School back in good standings within the state of Florida. St Thomas finished their season 23-9 and ranked sixth in all of Florida. Wekiva may not have won and it may not have been the most competitive game, but it was obvious that this was going to be the new normal for Wekiva basketball. What I got from coach Middleton after the game was that going for a deep playoff run was now the expectation.

"Look for us for the next few years to be back here, in what I consider a rivalry in the state of Florida because it's either Wekiva, St. Thomas, or Ely (Blanche Ely High School) so we'll see each other again for sure."

This Wekiva team battled through a lot of adversity this season and came together to make a true championship push. Coach Middleton explained it wasn't your average season, with your average motivation. These girls decided early on that if they were going to make a run to the championships a reality, then they had to come together.

"So we went through Christmas break and I think we lost seven out of eight games. We played

The Wekiva Mustangs held the St. Thomas Aquinas Raiders to a field goal percentage of 34.4 percent. Yet, by a score of 62-35, the 2023-24 season came to an end on Thursday, March 8 during the Class 6A state semifinals. How is the only answer, as old as sports, turnovers. Outcome of the contest was also as tangible proof as possible for why limiting turnovers are relentlessly harped on by coaches. In particular, a 19-9 advantage in turnovers was held by the Raiders during the first half. Total points scored from turnovers during the first half was 21-5 in favor of St. Thomas Aquinas.

Impact of turnovers was weightiest below the surface as the Raiders converted only 22 of 64 field goal attempts. More turnovers translated to increasing the numbers of opportunities to take field goal attempts, though. A high or even average percentage was unnecessary for St. Thomas Aquinas to take and keep the lead after the first six minutes.

"Difference between the solid 16-9 record and making the run to the state final four was reducing the turnovers," Mustangs coach Jerry Middleton said. "A broken record, but because why, still hasn't changed. Championship contenders consistently protect the Wekiva struggled just to keep the margin for total number of attempts above half at 38. Only 13 of the 38 field goal attempts were converted by the Mustangs for a percentage of 34.2. Still at 34 percent, St. Thomas Aquinas converted only nine of the 26 more field goal attempts taken. However, finding the range those nine more times accounted for a 20-point dif-

"Not only do teams

give up opportunities to score when turnovers are committed," Middleton said. "Opponents' opportunities to score also increase with every turnover. Often those opportunities are easy as well. Then time of possession for the team receiving the turnover increases. The more time the team in the lead has possession, the more likely to keep the lead. Worst case scenario for the team with the lead when receiving a turnover is the score remains the same."

WHS Basketball team fights hard in loss at FHSAA State Semifinal

Wekiva's Senaia Asanya pump fakes a St. Thomas defender and gets her off her feet for an easy two points on Thursday, March 7.

Wekiva's Makayla Bell (r) sets a scrreen for teammate Tierra Coleman (l) in attempt to create an open lane to the basket during their 62-35 loss in the FHSAA State Semifinal.

Blanche Ely and lost by about four or five points... and we kind of hit a wall. But with the chemistry and the love that our girls and coaches have, we had a powwow, a circle of truth. They carried and created their own five principles, they let me know as the head coach things that I could do to make them better as far as my approach to coaching. It was kind of weird, but we did it."

Middleton went on to explain that Coleman is the leader of the team and had been an integral piece of the journey to a final four appearance.

"I told Tierra (Coleman), 'I'm going to throw you a set of keys. What are we driving?' she said we're taking a charter bus. I said, 'We gotta get to Lakeland how are we going to get there?' and she said a charter bus. So I said, 'Well it's your team, whatever you want us to do, take us there,'... and she did."

When it comes to the game, it was purely just a good team against an excellent team. Wekiva is a great squad with a lot of strong players. But St. Thomas had elite athletes at every position and deep into their bench. St. Thomas' star player, Khadee Hession, leads the team in points per game with 18.6, rebounds per game with 6.8, and assists per game with 3.9. In total, Hession had 558 points, 117 assists, 205 rebounds, and 104 steals this season. To put it into a comparison , Wekiva's leader is Coleman who averaged 12.3 points a game, 1.5 assists a game, 2.7 rebounds a game, and 2.4 steals per game. In total Coleman had 343 points, 43 assists, 76 rebounds, and 68 steals this season.

The game started well for Wekiva. They kept up with St Thomas for most of the first quarter going bucket for bucket. Tied 7-7 with 3:20 left in the first quarter, St. Thomas began their separation from Wekiva. By the end of the first quarter, Wekiva was trailing 17-9 and was struggling with turnovers and giving up points from those turnovers.

After the first quarter, Wekiva had 10 turnovers and St. Thomas had 10 points from turnovers.

Wekiva had the better shooting percentage in the first quarter with 50 percent to St. Thomas 42.9 percent, but St. Thomas took 14 shots to Wekiva's eight. With fewer turnovers, Wekiva could have put up more shots and been closer or even ahead of St.Thomas.

The bad turned to worse in the second quarter and Wekiva went into the locker room in Lakeland down 32-16. St. Thomas outscored Wekiva 15-7 in the second quarter. Wekiva's struggles compounded and kept building in the second quarter with the Mustangs committing nine more turnovers giving St. Thomas 11 points from those turnovers. The Mustangs shot 2-for-8 from the field and 2-for-4 from the free-throw line. St. Thomas shot 5-20 from the field and 4-6 from the freethrow line in the second.

"Attention to detail. Not allowing the moment to be so big that it can dictate your decisions," Middleton said about what he hopes the team takes away from the experience.

The third quarter was Wekiva's best showing. The girls came out of the locker room with a plan, thanks to coach Middleton. He said the talks at halftime were about controlling the press that had been causing the Mustangs turnovers all game.

Even with the adjustments and great play, St. Thomas still outscored Wekiva 14-11 in the third quarter. But Wekiva did improve on their turnovers only committing five in the third and only giving St. Thomas four points from those turnovers. But Wekiva flipped it on St. Thomas getting eight points from their five turnovers in the third quarter.

Wekiva shot 4-for-8 from the field and 3-for-4 from the free-throw line. St. Thomas shot 6-for-16 from the field and 2-for-5 from beyond the arc. The Mustangs went into the final quarter down 46-27 looking for a miracle.

With their pride and energy drained, the Mustangs were not performing at their best in the fourth quarter but didn't quit until the final buzzer. Wekiva was outscored 16-8 in the final quarter as St. Thomas shot 5-for-14 from the field and 6-for-10 from the freethrow line, while Wekiva shot 3-for-14 from the field and 2-for-3 from the freethrow line.

The game ended with St. Thomas leading 62-35, and the Wekiva Mustangs headed back home. Wekiva had 28 turnovers in the game and St. Thomas scored 29 points from those turnovers.

"I think it's experience. We have seven sophomores and three seniors. They are a great team and I think it was their poise that was the difference," Coach Middleton said about St. Thomas versus Wekiva.

APK: Apopka comes out swinging in the first inning

Sadly the next at-bat ended in a strikeout and Apopka had to take the field without being able to capitalize on their momentum.

"The way we started off in that first inning I thought we were gonna roll a little bit, but their lefty, who's a very good pitcher, he found his groove and he's one of the better pitchers in the state of Florida," Brewer said.

Apopka's fielding stayed golden in the second and kept Dr. Phillips scoreless allowing the Darters to take the plate again looking to build on their first-inning lead. Unfortunately, Dr. Phillips collected three outs with haste and ended the second inning with Apopka still up 3-0 unable to add anything to the scoreboard.

In the third inning, Dr. Phillips found life and Apopka seemed to be flustered. An error in the field from Apopka turns a would-be-out, or even double play, into a man on third and a man on second situation with just one out. Dr. Phillips scored their first run on an RBI sent in from a Dr. Phillips batter perfectly placing a hit between second and third. The Apopka fielding began to be picked apart as the Dr. Phillips batters split their coverage on the field on multiple occasions. Dr. Phillips scored another run from an RBI but suffered their second out as Apopka moved closer to shutting down the building Dr. Phillips attack. It was McKinley deep in midfield who grabbed an enormous out to end the inning with Apopka still up 3-2.

"We made a mistake. We got an error on a ball we normally wouldn't. Our shortstop, Nico Posluszny, has been playing lightsout defense and he came up short, the ball kind of stayed in his hand and he didn't get the pick. But that was the start of everything. After that they swung the bats a little bit on us," said Brewer.

Apopka, again in the third, couldn't get anything going for them at the plate with the Dr. Phillips pitcher now in a good rhythm. The third ended with no runs, Apopka still leading 3-2 going into the fourth.

Alejandro Posluszny started the game on the mound for Apopka but was replaced going into the fourth with Connor McAfee. Posluszny ended his shift allowing two hits, two runs, three strikeouts, and walked one batter after facing 13 Dr. Phillips batters on 56 pitches. The fourth was a quiet one with both Apopka and Dr. Phillips unable to secure any

Dr. Phillips exploded at the plate in the fifth. They scored back-to-back RBIs to score two runs and take the lead from Apopka 4-3. Fielding mistakes, errors, and the pitching scheme from Apopka were the catalysts for Dr. Phillips' runs. After securing three outs and keeping them from scoring any more runs, Apopka took the plate in the fifth inning now down a run.

Apopka struggled all night with the umpire at home plate and his *per*ceived strike zone. Brewer told me that nothing other than a ball straight down the batter's throat was being called in the box. It was hard for Apopka to get any of their pitches going because of this which resulted in a lot of hits for Dr. Phillips.

"The strike zone tonight was a little bit tough. Our biggest problem was we were having to throw it right down the pipe. That's not pitching," said Brewer. "Alejandro started off really well but he just lost the feel for the strike zone a little bit, but like I said, it was awful tight. Then Connor came in and he did the same thing. He threw some strikes but the thing was that we were throwing too many balls. It wasn't that we weren't throwing strikes, it's just that when the strike zone is tough like tha,t you gotta fight through it. There was a time when he was calling strikes and our pitchers know where that spot was, so it's up to them now to make that adjustment and hit that spot. But to their credit, none of them quit."

But now back at the plate, Apopka had a chance to get back the momentum they lost in the first. They did just that, with two outs Apopka scored their fourth run thanks to an error made by a Dr. Phillips fielder who dropped a huge fly ball that sent in the runner on third. The Darters were unable to secure any more points than that and ended the fifth now tied with Dr. Phillips 4-4.

The last two innings were a true battle as both teams attempted to get just a hair in front of the other for the win. Dr. Phillips scored a run in the sixth that put them up 5-4 and Apopka ended the sixth scoring no runs going into the final ining down a run. In the seventh Apopka stepped up and played perfect defense keeping Dr. Phillips to no runs. It was Apopka's Wyatt Jaggers that ended the game on the mound for Apopka coming into the game in the seventh. Apopka still needed to score to send the game into overtime or secure the victory

Apopka put all their will into the bats in the seventh and squeezed a run out of it to send the game into overtime and a chance to take the win.

Now in the eighth inning, Apopka had to have another near-perfect fielding appearance and then repeat their play on offense. The defense did their job keeping Dr. Phillips scoreless in the eighth but it was up to the batters to bring home the win.

It was Reid Taylor who got on base for Apopka and would be the runner to make it home. Taylor found himself in a situation where he attempted to steal second and then third. When he went to steal third, Dr. Phillips' pitcher sent a crazy pass to the third baseman in an effort to tag him out but the ball went wide and sent Taylor to home plate as the entire dugout and stands cheered

Cody McKinley slides into second to steal the base as a Dr. Phillips player jumps to avoid the slide and catch the ball.

The Apopka dugout, and coach Bobby Brewer, celebrate Brady Roberts' homerun in the first inning that put Apopka up 3-0 on Monday, March 11.

"The gameplan was we were going to take until we got a strike. We even told our guys, 'In some cases, if you need to, you can take two strikes and weren't going to bark at ya or anything like that.' We needed base runners and we're at our best when we are up there fighting and just trying to get on base.

Because we can make a pitcher throw a lot of pitches," Brewer told me after the game.

Brewer talked to me about who has been stepping up for the team in those clutch moments. "Right now to be honest with you the guy that's stepping up for us huge is Reef (VanKuren). Reef has just stepped into that spot and has been our offensive guy here the last three or four games where he's just gotten big hits, after big hits, after big hits. It's crazy what he's doing right now. Now, like tonight, Brady (Roberts) got the homerun and the double late in the game, but really like I said, the guy that has been the most consistent has been Reef."

Brewer also told me the team made a lot of unforced errors and mistakes both at the plate and in the field against Dr. Phillips. "Well, like I told our guys, 'You've gotta go back and look at everything we did tonight.' We did bunt the ball well tonight, we put the ball on the ground. But we swung at too many pitches out of the strike zone. When we knew we had that tight strike zone there were too many times we swung where we didn't need to. And then there were times when we put the bat on our shoulder when we knew it was right down the pipe. So just being a little bit more disciplined at the plate would've helped us," Brewer said. dled differently. We were a little bit too careful. I told the boys 'I don't want to be reckless on defense but guys we gotta have a sense of urgency. There's gotta be a little bit more oomph to it.' I thought we had a double play here at third. I think we babied it because we didn't want to throw it in right field. We tell our guys all the time, 'You can't think bad stuff. You can't think negatively, you can't go 'Oh what's going to happen if I don't make this out?', or 'What if I make an error?' No! You think 'What's it going to be like when I make this play? What is it going to be like when I square this ball up?' So we just try to get them to think positive."

Furthermore, only two more second chance points were scored by the Raiders at 11-9. Fast breaks were actually 7-6 in favor of Wekiva.

"Some of the difficulty with turnovers was because of the Raiders," Middleton said. "The press St. Thomas Aquinas used was the same as St. Cloud and we convincingly won (during the regional final). Inability to handle the ball was more on us. Turnovers were of our own volition. The ball was dropped a number of times when no Raiders were within five feet. Inaccurate throws were equally common,

"Outcome might not have changed, but a more competitive contest if we aren't committing self-damaging mistakes on the fundamentals of catching and throwing. We have an opportunity to win if the turnovers are limited to the same amount as during the regional rounds.'

Between the second possession and 2:57 of the first quarter, Wekiva did not turn the ball over. Then a turnover ended eight of the next 10 possessions and ignited a 20-4 Raiders' run. Points were scored by St. Thomas Aguinas said. "We took the next step from a solid regular season of following seven of the eight turnovers.

"There is no substitute for experience,' was played out front and center," Middleton said. "Feeling the brightest lights and the biggest stage for the first time was definitely felt."

Score was 17-9, 32-16 and 46-27 at the end of the first three quarters.

In the last contest of her high school and Mustang career, Tierra Coleman was high scorer with 19 points. Totaling 17 points, Khadee Hession topped St. Thomas Aquinas' scoring attack. However, double digits in the scoring column were reached by all five Raider starters. Mya Johnson (12) and Ka-zahria Johnson (11) also grabbed 23 rebounds combined to achieve double-doubles.

Rebounds were also 44-30 in favor of St Thomas Aguinas. Twenty-five of the Raiders' rebounds were on the offensive side. Even though differential in second chance points was only two, offensive rebounds have the same effect on time of possession as turnovers.

"Nonetheless, a lot to feel pride about," Middleton 16-9 to a state final four team and state championship contender. Expectations for Wekiva were anything but returning to the state championship contender landscape after last season. No one thought the senior leadership needed to take the next step and culminating with the run existed."

The Bloomingdale Bulls and an undefeated record of 30-0 provided the opposition for the state championship final. The run to the state championship was capped off by St. Thomas Aguinas (23-9) with an equally decisive score of 70-35. Also advancing to the state final-four was the Ponte Verde Sharks (22-9).

"Advancing to the state final four and even losing was a learning experience to be used next season," Middleton said. "More importantly for moving forward next season, we are graduating only three seniors from a team advancing to the state final four. No other team contending for the state championship has less than four."

SJRWM announces February's water conditions at its governing board meeting

In February, the St. Johns River Water Management District region witnessed below-average rainfall, with the majority of precipitation concentrated in the middle of the month, driven by a frontal boundary traversing the central counties. Out of the 18 counties comprising the District, 12 received less than their typical monthly rainfall, while six counties experienced above-average precipitation.

A comprehensive report outlining February's hydrologic conditions was presented at the District's Governing Board meeting, featuring the following highlights:

Rainfall

* Districtwide, February's rainfall averaged 2.81 inches, just 0.13 below the monthly average. * County-wide monthly rainfall totals ranged from a high of 3.79 inches in Lake County, to a low of 2 inches in Okeechobee County.

* Over the past 12 months, the majority of the District received average to above-average rainfall, with a cumulative total of 57.60 inches, surpassing the long-term average by 6.59 inches.

* County-wide totals varied between 52.84 inches in Lake County to 62.91 inches in Volusia County.

Groundwater

* Upper Floridan aquifer conditions varied but generally fell within the high or normal range by the end of February.

* Districtwide groundwater levels, expressed as a single index, fall within the 84th percentile, which is in the high range for this time of year.

Spring flows

* Silver Springs recorded a mean monthly flow of 701 cubic feet per second (cfs), or 453 million gallons per day (mgd), a 13 cfs decrease from January, falling within the normal range for this time

* Blue Spring station in Volusia County reported a mean monthly flow of 158 cfs, or 102 mgd, within the normal range.

* Rock Springs experienced a slight increase in mean monthly flow, just within the high range at 61 cfs (40 mgd).

* Wekiwa Springs exhibited a slight decrease, recording a mean monthly flow of 66 cfs (43 mgd), consistent with the seasonal norm.
