You can make five different kinds of bread using different toppings

Betty Land's Seafood Souffle comes from What's Cookin'? a wonderful publication put out by the Apopka Woman's Club many years ago. Butter and eggs and milk, all fresh, with lovely fresh seafood. It is so adaptable, you can use just about any seafood you have just freshly caught... or bought at the market.

A question that many of us have this time of year is, "What am I going to do with this left-over turkey?" Tracy Watson of the Apopka Citizen Police Alumni Association has a wonderful suggestion that we found published in Sharing Our Finest Cookbook.

Carrots and Brussels Sprouts with orange zest and brown sugar fixed on top of the stove are compliments of Southern Living's All-Time Favorites.

Southern Living's All-Time Favorites has their Cream Cheese Banana Nut Bread and several toppings. It looks delicious and you can take your pick of the flavor you want. We have run this recipe before, and it always gets great reviews, especially at holiday time.

Nana Morris' Bran Muffins look like a great recipe, especially if you choose to use the optional raisins. (I might use a whole cup of raisins!) Nana's recipe comes from our friend Susan's The Jones-Morris Family Treasury. Nana adds a few cautionary notes at the end.

The first time I ever had fried pies was when I was a child and enjoyed them at a church bazaar in South Carolina. They were so hot, but so good. We thank the Apopka Citizen Police Alumni Association for sharing their recipe for Fried Pies in Sharing Our Finest Cookbook.

Amelia Napier's Orange Marmalade and will be delicious on hot pancakes, cornbread, hot biscuits... whatever you can think of! This fruit spread comes from The Apopka Woman's Club's What's Cookin'?

1 cup chopped pecans, toasted
1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract
Beat butter and cream cheese at medium speed with an electric mixer until creamy. Gradually add sugar, beating until light and fluffy. Add eggs, one at a time, beating just until blended after each addition. Combine flour and next three ingredients; gradually add to butter mixture, beating at low speed just until blended. Stir in bananas, pecans, and vanilla. Spoon batter into two greased and floured 8- x 4-inch loaf pans. Bake at 350 degrees for one

She graduated from Apopka Memorial High School and Florida State University, with a degree in Interior Design. She began her career in Fort Valley, GA, where she met her husband. His work took them to Pennsylvania and then to his home in San Pedro. After enjoying volunteer work in her children's schools, Carolyn returned to college, earned a degree in education, and became an elementary teacher for L. A. Unified School District.

Growing up, she was an active member of the choir, Sunday School, and youth group at the Episcopal Church of the Holy Spirit in Apopka. In San Pedro, she attended St. Peter's Episcopal Church. During her 40 plus years of membership there, she contributed leadership to the Vestry (serving as Junior Warden), the Christian Education Program, and proudly served as a member of the Order of Daughters of the King. She also enjoyed singing in the choir and playing in the handbell ensemble. She loyally volunteered for and supported the church outreach programs of Laundry Love and Heifer International. Carolyn had a joyful nature; was intelligent, thoughtful, and artistically creative. She leaves a legacy of helping, loving, caring, and sharing.

A memorial service was held December 7, 2024 at her church in San Pedro, CA.

Anxiety

My wife was recently involved in a car crash. Fortunately, she wasn't badly hurt, but the crash caused both of us some anxiety. I found myself fearful of driving the next day, especially when we went by the crash site (a large and busy intersection). I was also anxious that for the time being we only had one car and since both of us work, I was worried that if our one good car was wrecked we'd be in serious financial trouble, having to rent two cars instead of one and having to replace two cars in the final analysis. But as the weekend after the accident wore on, I began to realize that I was worried about more than just the cars. It seemed to me that I was experiencing anxiety over our mortality. My wife and I are both in our sixties, and we have both seen our grandparents and two of our parents pass away, and we realize that after the other parents pass, it's our turn next. Every generation will reach a point when the previous generation has passed and they must face the inevitable passing of their siblings, their friends, and themselves. The religious remedy for the anxiety of facing death is to trust that we will live on—somehow and somewhere.

The existential remedy is to realize that our life is a brief span between two infinities, the infinite time before we were born (or conceived) and the infinite time after our death. If these two infinities are essentially the same, why worry about the one (the one to come) but not the other?

—Christopher Simon

But those who wait on the Lord Shall renew their strength; They shall mount up with wings like eagles, They shall run and not be weary, They shall walk and not faint. Isaiah 40:31

In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.
Matthew 5:16

The angels announced it: "Peace on earth and goodwill toward men!" Goodwill means favor and kindness, and the Infant in the manger was the bridge of favor and kindness between God and man.
